THRIVING SUNDAY DRUG TRADE

The Saloon Door, the Soda Fountain and Cigar Trade Just as Active as Ever-Mr. Phelps' Water Barrel a Boon to the Thirsty-What the Druggists Say-Intention of Pastors to Hira Detectives.

As far as the Sunday closing movenent is concerned particularly in Its relation to druggists, the words "as usual" seem almost sufficient in raply o any who may have wondered how the day was observed yesterday. The saloon side-loor swung as frequently as in the past, the fizz and sizz of the soda fountain was as incessant and in-dependent as it was before Mr. Dony ppeared on the scene and neither the oma nor briskness of the cigar trade med to lag.

A feature of the day's doings was a 120 Wyoming Avenue street. It was only a large cask neatly painted and set upon a large box with a balf-dezen cups, yet it out quite a figure in yesterday's discussions of nonsecular business.

secular business.

Why this free ice water reservoir should bear any relationship to the closing of worldly business, does not appear, unless it is Druggist Phelps' answer to Mr. Dony's argument that the money spent to supply free drinking fountains would obviate the necessity for salling and a water. Anyhow sity for selling soda water. Anyhow, notwithstanding his ice water tank. Mr. Phelps did a rushing business all day; so did Druggist Ryan, at the corner of Space street and Penn avenue; McGarran & Thomas, at 209 Luckswanna avenue, and the various other druggists and cigar dealers who have figured in the litigation of the past few

WHAT DRUGGISTS SAY. In conversing with Mr. Poelps and Mr. Ryan yesterday, neither intimated to a Thibune reporter any intention of reinquishing Sinday traffic. The former expressed his disapprobation of Mr. Dony's methods and also said that the any mandates or outcome of municipal or civil authority.

During the past week the paster's union and Mr. Dony have remained very much in the background; that is, there were no new proceedings insti-tuted nor did it appear on the surface that any operations of a particular nature were in progress.

It has been intimated that the Sunay closing prosecutors have been holding back for a new move. The Tain-UNE is credibly informed that the addi-tion of business men to the executive committee of the Paster's union was for the purpose of securing funds for pushing the work. The amount was at at $2,000 or more, and the purpose for which this large sum was to be detectives were at work yesterday and their engagement is the weapon up the sleeve of the Pastors' union executive committee. It cannot be announced positively that professional men were t work yesterday, nor that they confined their operations to the drug trade, but the fact remains that detectives were to be employed.

La Mascotte, Chimes of Normandy and Olivette to Be Given.

The second week of summer opera by the second week of summer opera by the Mackay Kenney aggregation at the Frothingham will witness the produc-tion of "La Mascotta," "Chimes of Normandy" and "Olivette," The artistic work of the company during last week was a revelation in showing what a good opera could be presented for such a low price of ad-mission. If favorable weather characterizes the present week, there will no doubt be a continuation of the large houses of the initial performances. "La Mascotte" will be given Monday and Tuesday nights, "Chimes of Nor-mandy" on Wednesday and Thursday, and "Olivette" on Friday and Saturday. The low prices of last week, 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents, will prevail. Mat-inee announcements will appear later.

STRIKE MAY TERMINATE TODAY. Bricklayers and Contractors to Hold a Conference in Mr. Echroeder's Office. A committee of eight of the striking ricklayers met a number of the contractors Saturday at the builders exchange, where a conference was held to arrange a settlement of the difficulties existing between the builders and bricklayers, which will admit the lat-body resuming work.

There was a disposition on the part of the men to hold out for a slight increase over the old 35 cents per hour atio, but the contractors intimated that they would stand firm in adhering to the cld scale. No definite agreement was made and the meeting terminated to assemble today in Conrad Schroeder's office in the Commonwealth

GREAT MUSICAL EVENT.

Elaborate Arrangements for the Coming Oratorio at the Frothingham, The most elaborate preparations are being made for the production of Butterfield's great dramatic oratorio at the Frothingham on the evenings of June 28 and 29. The entire cast will number over 500 singers and actors. The work is in five acts and each one of the most intense interest, There will be a chorns of Jews, numbering over 500 voices. The Babylonian chorns will number nearly 200, The young ladies of Belshazzar's court will give the finest fancy drill ever witnessed in this city. This department of the work is under the direction of Professor Frank S-igel, and the number in the drill will be over 150. The stage manager is John T. Wat-kins, who is being ably assisted by John M. Harris and Dan Young, of the Mackay-Kenny Opera company, which is now playing in this city. Tallie Morgan is the director. It is safe to predict that the production of this work will be the greatest musical and spectacular affair ever seen in this city.

William Kelly Explains Who and What They

NOT SAME AS A MORMAN SAINT

Rest Their Faith Upon Old and New Testament and Book of Mormon. Polygamy is Objected to, but They Bolieve in Direct Ravelation-Have Gone Back to Purity and Belief of

Two missionaries of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Seints, William Kelly, of Kirtland, O., and H. H. Robinson, of Independence, Mo., are in the city, and yesterday morning and evening conducted meetings in Cooperative hall on the West Side. Ninteen persons, four of whom were children, attended the morning service. Mr. Kelly was the speaker. He is somewhat patrixrehial in appearance, but might be counted more than an ordinarily good speaker w-rs it not that he beauty of many of his sentences is marred by the fact that he falls to appreciate the value of agreement atween the subject and the verb. He took for his text these words from the book of St. Matthew: "But what think we? A certain man had two sons; and be came to the first and said: Son, go work to lay in my vineyard.' H. an-swered and said: 'I will not;' but afterward he repeated and went. And he time to the second and said likewise, and he answered and said: 'I go, sir;' and went not. Whother of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him the first. Jesus said noto them: 'Verity I say note you, that the publicius and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.'"

A LONG DISCOURSE. Mr. Kelly spoke for ever an lour and swidently could have kept right on all day, as he never seemed to lack for a word. He said he proposed to speak of those things which relate to our present and eternal welfare. The ef-fect of the teaching of Carist upon those in His day, he averred, was very much the same as that produced by other men divinely mapired. There was no wonderful power displayed that compelled men to accept what Christ said as truth. His words were directed to the intelligence of men and they were left to choose for themselves between the right and the wrong.

In speaking of John the Baptist, Mr.
Kelly said that many accepted the message of the great forerunner. Yet co have very little account of what John did. However, most people ea-termed him a prophet and the common people heard him gladly. There is an integrity in the common people, said the speaker, that is not always found in those whose stations are higher in In commenting upon the two sons referred to in the text Mr. Kelly gave it as his opinion that the first son had no business to speak to his father as he did, but the fact that he after-ward repented and did the work, fur-nishes a good idea of the nature of repentance, which is simply the changing of one's mind. The speaker did not particularly assail other churches, although their points of disagreement were coudemned, and when he told his hearers to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, inference may have been that by Pharisees was meant those whose religious code will allow no sanction of the doctrines of the Latter Day Saints. The points connected with the practice and belief of the saints that are most objectionable to the mass of Caristians were not dwelt upon. WHAT THE SAINTS ARE. After the close of his discourse Mr. Kelly explained to THE TRIBUNE reporter that himself and colleague were in the city to see if they could not bring together the members of the church here of whom there was at one time quite a number. He gave the re-porter to understand that the Latter Day Saints are in no way connected with the Salt Lake Mormons, who are improperly called Latter Day Saints. The real saints, that is those who are represented by Mr. Kelly, rest their faith on the old and the new testament and the book of Mormon. They believe in the laving on of hands and all the other practices of the apostles, claim to be endowed with the gift of tongues at their gatherings, reject conducted the services, and Miss Magpolygamy, but profess to believe in direct revelation from God as in the lays of old. In fact they claim to ave gone back to the belief, purity and practices of the church as they existed in the time of the apostles.

OPENING OF WOODLAWN PARK Delightful Breathing Spot Donated to the City of Scranton.

Another delightful breathing spot for Scrantonians, called Woodlawn park, will be opened today. Woodlawn park, which has been acepted by the city and an annual appropriation made to keep it in repair, one of the most attractive spots imiginable and extends from the Boulevard to Washington avenue, a short distance north of North park. It is a natural park, containing beautiful shade trees, a miniature lake and a picturesque ravine. An immense fountain is to be crected in the center of the park and the gravelled walks, beside which rustic sens will be placed, are nearly completed.

The beautiful park is a gift to the city by Hanson Carpenter, George W. Sidney, H. and Marian W. Finn, and George R. Clark, and is situated in the center of a tract of land owned by those gentlemen, which they have divided into choice building lots which they are about to place upon the marvided into choice building lots which ket as sites for residences.

The generous donors of the park have already spent several thousand dollars in beautifying the spot. Grass plots have been made, shrubbery and trees planted and flower beds will also be placed in the park. Some of the trees in the park are seventy-five feet bigh and the trunks are also six feet in circumference. Other trees of smaller dimensions present a shield against the rays of the sun, and taken altogether, the spot was amply endowed by nature and has all the requirements necessary to a park,

The city lots in the vicinity of the park are among the finest in Scranton, the land sloping gently toward the Luckawanna river, thus affording ex-cellent opportunities for sewerage; and the finest view in the city can be obtained from the plot.

Wood Lawn park seems deslined to ecome the most popular resort in North Scranton.

At the Parltan Congregational church he decorations were most artistically carried out and shows great tasts upon the ladies in charge. In the afternoon esponsive services were held, in which itsv. D. A. Evans and the Sunday school superintendent Elward Lewis, took part. Solos were rendered with took part. Solos were rendered with great teste by Mary Elwards, Elgar Richards and Eba Henry, and an interesting address was given by the pastor. In the evening the anti-tiems, "The Joyful" and "Lift Un Your Heads" were rendered by the choir and reflected great credit upon the conjector, Griffith R Davies, Mis-Annie Reese presided at the organ with her accustomed skill. The services were conducted by Edward Lowis. The rest of the programme, which was excellently rendered, was as follows: Solos-Misses Mary Edwards, Emma Humphrey, Huttle Edwards, Maggie Davis, Mrs. J. T. L. wis, L. H. A. Jones. The quartette of G. R. Davies and party deserves special mention, as also does the trio by Professor Prothe-roe and party.

At the Providence Presbyterian courch the decorations were exquisite and showed excellent taste in their arrangement, under the supervision of Superintendent H. H. McKean. Miss Ruth Jackson presided at the organ and Professor J. J. Divies, musical bachelor, conducted. The chief musi-cal features were the anthems, "Praise he Lord," by the choir, which, as well as the authom and quartefte. "In Humble Faith and Holy was exceedingly well Love," Love," was exceedingly well rendered. Special mention should be made of the quartette, "The Rachaul Morn," composed by the conductor and sung by Misses Laverna Mitchell, Catherine Gabriel, T. J. Davies and P. H. Warren. The quartete, "When I Can Make My Title Clear," was also ably rend-red by the Ladies' Beautiful Russet Tipped Men's best grade Casco Calf, lace same party. The other chief numbers were the solo, "O, Can the Eternal," by William Evans, and "The Promise! Land," by Miss Mitchell. The offerings for the day were $70, for Sanday school work in the west and southern states.

At the Welsh Baptist church the services last evening were carried on: almost exclusively to the little ones. It is no exaggeration to state that their work was perfect. Very careful spring heel button and auxious work must have been undertaken to bring out the highly cros-itable results. Recitations were given given by Maggie F. Jones, Kora Roberts, Luin Sims, Lizzie Williams, Muggie Turning, Bertha Sima, El Jones, A Morgan. In the musical portion the solo by a very little girl, Lizzle Edmunds, "See They Are Coming," was by a special re quest repeated; the congregation stood to testify their appreciation. The following were excellently sung by the children's choir: "O Worship the King," "Blesset Creator," "Our Day of Flowers," "Room for the Flowers," "Take Us Gentle Saviour," "Lift Us Your Eyes Ye People," "Jesus King Most Wonderful." An interesting interlude was a colleguy between the pastor and various members as to the origin, history and cliest of the Calid. origin, history and object of the Childgie J.
